IN BRIEF

Men's senior tennis team takes division trophy

Palm Beach Net Assets, the town-based senior men's tennis team, won its division in the county tournament for the second consecutive year (with no season in 2021).

Players will present the team plaque to Assistant Town Manager Carolyn Stone at 11 a.m. Wednesday on the steps of the Mandel Recreation Center at their home court, Seaview Tennis Center, 340 Seaview Ave.

"PBNA just won level six McEnroe White Division of the Palm Beach County Senior Tennis, two levels higher and tougher than in 2020 when we won pre-COVID. No mean feat!" said team captain Neil Aronstam.

Literacy Links tournament set for Friday

The sixth annual Literacy Links Golf Tournament is Friday at the Palm Beach Par 3.

Money raised from the charity tournament will provide adults and children in need with links to literacy programs that will help them succeed in school and life.

A foursome is $800 and includes lunch. Individuals can play for $225. Check-in for the scramble format tournament is at 7:30 a.m. A shotgun start follows at 8:30 a.m. Lunch, awards and a silent auction will follow play at al Fresco Restaurant at the Palm Beach Par 3 clubhouse.

For more information or to register,

Robert Mitchell warms up before the Literacy Links Golf Tournament at the Par 3 in 2021.

MEGHAN MCCARTHY/PALM BEACH DAILY NEWS

got to www.literacypbc.org.

Pinckney named membership director at Sollis Health

Sollis Health, a members-only VIP medical service, has named Carling Cooney Boyles Pinckney the membership director for its new flagship location at 324 Royal Palm Way, which is set to open this summer.

Pinckney has 15 years of marketing and business development experience, working in health-care, finance and legal industries. In her new role, she is responsible for helping launch and maintain membership generation in the South Florida region, including Palm Beach, Broward and Miami-Dade counties.

Pinckney

For more information on Sollis Health, visit sollishealth.com/locations/palm-beach.