IN BRIEF

Lecture series continues Tuesday

The Gary & Terri Schottenstein Torah Institute Lecture Series will present the talk "Raid on Entebbe with Sasson Reuven" at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Chabad House. Reuven, a veteran of the Israeli Defense Force, was part of the rescue operation in 1976 of the passengers from the hijacked Air France plane that was rerouted after take-off in Tel Aviv to Entebbe, Uganda, instead of its destination of Paris. To register for the event, which includes hor d'oeuvres and an open bar, visit, palmbeachjewish.com/lecture or call 561-659-3884. Chabad House is located at 361 S. County Road.

Auction to benefit earthquake victims

Coe + Co. Photography Gallery will hold an opening reception for its exhibition of works by artist Dean West on Friday, with proceeds from an auction of one of his photographs benefiting earthquake victims in Turkey. The 5 to 7 p.m. reception will include the auctioning of a framed photograph by West at a minimum bid of $5,000. Proceeds will benefit the Turkish Philanthropy Funds. The exhibit "Dean West, The Palms: Volume One" will be open at the gallery from Thursday to March 11. The gallery is at 292 S. County Road. More than 25,000 people have been killed in the devastating 7.8 magnitude earthquake that struck Turkey and Syria last week. For more information, call 561-770-3168.

Sollis appoints assistant medical director

Sollis Health, a 24/7 members-only VIP medical service, has named Dr. Jennifer Jackson as the assistant medical director for its location at 324 Royal Palm Way. Jackson will support medical director Dr. Ian Rusinoff in the care of patients as well as the overall operations of Sollis Health's Palm Beach location.
